I believe that there is no absolute freedom. This would be a dangerous path to follow.

However, a school needs to be especially full of the joys of liberty, of openness, of movement and choice and fluidity. In a freedom-filled school, choice is respected, choice is encouraged.

In a free setting, a student feels safe to be a minority; he does not feel guilty or tense, offbeat or oddball, just because he chooses not to go along with the crowd. Ours is the land of the free. It will continue to be, if our schools are freedom-full today. The choice is ours.

Compliments of

John and Judy Thielges

One thing we have to offer is more than one thing.

Some places serve you chicken. Some places pizza. Others may give you a choice of two or three things to eat. Wyatt's gives you a selection of over one hundred dishes every day. Good things to eat, like just baked breads and pastries, fresh vegetables and succulent roast beef. All prepared right in Wyatt's own kitchens. Give your appetite a choice. Try Wyatt's.

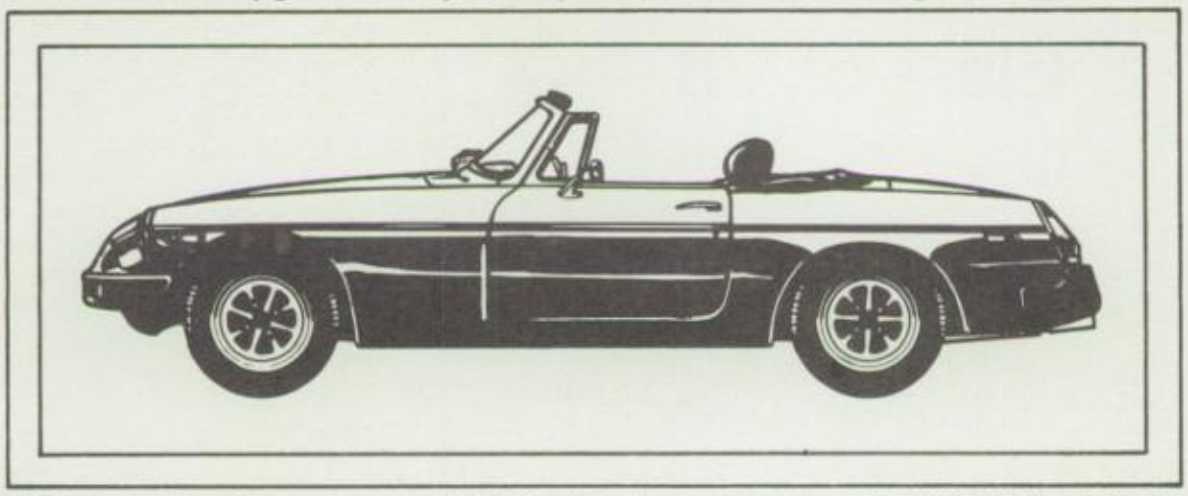
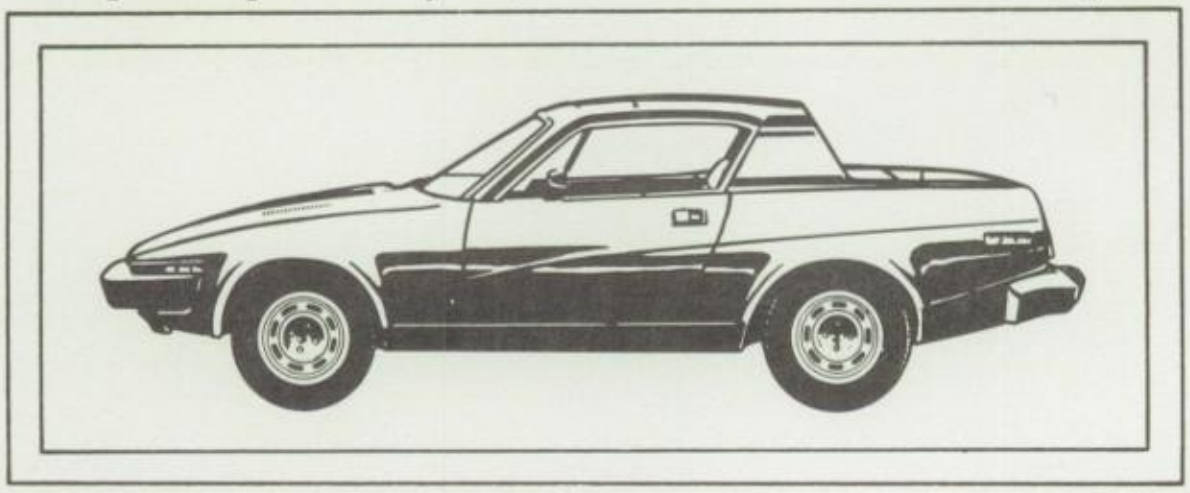
JAGUAR XJ-S. Here is the latest great Jaguar, proud heir to a long line of classic luxury high-performance cars. The S-type is, very likely, the best-handling four-passenger car in the world.



MGB. Our first MG won its first race in 1929. Today, the classic MGB holds the SCCA Class E Championship for this year, as it has for five of the last six years.



TRIUMPH TR7. The shape of things that win, TR7 is a wedge-shaped classic sports car with an impressive string of victories in its first year of racing.

This quick course in the classics is brought to you, proudly, by British Leyland.
